- IV. Results of the 2015016 SAGE Assessments: Chris
 - School Assessment Data, SAGE Data
 - Schools selected based on a curve
 - Look at Proficiency Rates & Student Growth
 - School Turnaround Project & Committee
 - Chris attended the first two-day training this last weekend. There is a lot of support from the USBE staff (Not School Board) and Fed Educational Centers (WestEd). They are acting upon our State Legislative mandates of 2014-15.
 - Money is disbursed to the Project Design, Vendors, and eventually teachers who raise student scores. There is no money available to schools. We have support from our District.
 - An Appraisal will take place in January and a Plan in due in March
 - Focus Areas for School Goals
 - We are good at teaching students how to read. Need to work on critical thinking skills in all classes. The District can help with Professional Development and Resources.
 - Our greatest need is time for this Professional Development during school hours. The problem is getting Subs. The ideal would be once a week.
- V. School Land Trust:
 - Report on District Training: Chris
 - Training Video: Chris will send out links to access training tapes.
 - Need a focus for next year by our meeting in March.
- VI. School Programs:
 - Beverly Taylor Sorenson Grant: Chris
 - Art Lit: Missy

- Report on the Art Auction: MaryJane
The Auction earned more than $14,689. PTO earned about $500.
- Beyond Basics (PBL):Chris
- The Leader in Me: Chris attended a training last Thursday on setting Student Goals.
- New After School Program: Chris purchased a robot for a group of students to work on coding. It is a STEM Project that competes with other students across the nation. We used GT funds to help motivate students to complete homework and improve school behavior. Since our meeting I have ordered a second robot.

VII. PTO:

- Report on Halloween Carnival: Charlie
Well attended. Sending free tickets home with the students helped the attendance. The PTO raised about $1200. Suggestions for next year included starting earlier and lighting outside.
- Reading Rumble: Roslyn is ready for the 18th. All but four students attended.
- Student Photos: Roslyn “ You cannot tell pictures taken by the 1st and 2nd graders from the 3rd, 4th, and 5th graders. Quality work.
- New Law for PTOs and other Fundraisers: Lizz
- Christmas Giving Tree: MaryJane

VIII . Next Meeting: Monday, January 23rd 4:00
